YOUR CONNECTION TO EVERY DAIRY FARM IN BC! WRITTEN FOR FARMERS, BY FARMERS

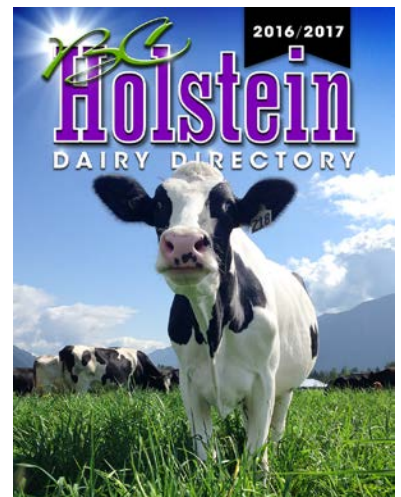

Media Kit
2017

Celebrating 38 years in publication!

BC Holstein News and the Annual Directory are niche publications that focus solely on the BC dairy industry and the vibrant community behind it – the people, the cows, and the farms that are home to both!

If you have a dairy or farm-related product or service and you want to connect to the heart of the BC dairy industry, you've come to the right place – BC Holstein News.

Our Readers – Loyal and Engaged!

BC Holstein News is your positive-vibe link to an incredibly targeted customer base!

The BC dairy community is close-knit and supportive. They love what they do and are eager to share and learn from one another.

They are dairy farmers, yes, but our readers are also veterinarians, financial advisors, and purveyors of farm equipment and services of every description. They are lawyers, carpenters, plumbers, educators, students, photographers – you can see where we are going here – a diverse community with a common interest.

Dairy Industry of BC – Fast Facts

- BC's 542 dairy farms produce 658.5 million litres of milk and generate $493.8 million in farm cash receipts
- Approximately 95% of all farms in BC are family owned and run.
- Dairy farmers are committed to environmentally sustainable practices. They utilize these practices through soil conservation, setting limitations on the amount of energy and water in dairy production, and by utilizing renewable energy technology on their farms.
- Dairy producers directly employ an estimated 4,031 workers, representing $89.4 million in wages and 11.8 per cent of BC agricultural jobs.
- Approximately $2.2 billion is generated by the dairy industry value chain in economic output, contributing an estimated $637 million to GDP.
- An estimated 5,600 jobs are supported directly by the dairy producers (4,031) and processors (1,570), with a further 5,184 in related industries.

From the Publishers' Desk at Dream Acres Dairy

We just don't write about dairy farmers... we are dairy farmers! We have the unique perspective of being personally affected by the issues in the dairy industry that we report on. We have personal connections with the people, products, and processes of dairy farming in BC. These personal connections run deep throughout the entire dairy community.

We gather news attending all local dairy shows and sales, seminars and conferences – compiling information and results, and taking those vibrant photos! Because we farm ourselves, we have a personal relationship with the agri-businesses as a customer and colleague.

We tell the personal side of the dairy story. We talk to the people behind the cows. We focus on the positive side of the industry and celebrate what's great about being dairy farmers!
